GOVERNMENT OF PUDUCHERRY
HOME DEPARTMENT

(G.O. Ms. No. 5, dated 18th February 2010)

NOTIFICATION

The Honb'le Supreme Court of India in their Judgement, dated 29-9-2009 in Special Leave Appeal (Civil) No. 8519/2006, Union of India Vs. State of Gujarat and others had inter alia issued directions to frame the policy in respect of existing unauthorised constructions of religious nature, which had already taken place i.e., prior to 29-9-2009.

2. Accordingly, the Lieutenant-Governor of Puducherry is pleased to frame a policy to deal with the menace of encroachment of public places by religious structures prior to 29-9-2009 and also those that had taken place after the said date:—

(i) Religious structures existing on public land without causing obstruction to public movement and over a long period of time shall be considered for regularisation on a case to case basis.

(ii) Religious structures existing on public land for a long period of time but which obstruct public movement may be shifted to alternative locations with Cabinet/Lieutenant-Governor's approval.

(iii) All cases of constructions of religious nature on public lands which have taken place after 29-9-2009 should be removed forthwith under intimation to Home Minister/Chief Minister/Lieutenant-Governor. This includes constructions of temporary nature also.

(iv) No further encroachments to be allowed on public land under any circumstances. The land owning agencies and Revenue and Police Departments will be responsible for securing the land.

(v) Public to be duly informed through the media regarding the orders of the Supreme Court of India on the above subject.

(vi) Committee to be formed under Collector consisting of Revenue/Police/Public Works Department and Local Body officials for conduct of detailed survey regarding encroachments of religious nature and ways of regularising/removal as per above policy.
